PRESS RELEASE

GCSE Results 2017

At King Edward VI School (K.E.S.), where students study at least eleven GCSEs, there was a 100% pass rate with over three-quarters of papers graded A* or A (or equivalent).

Thirty-seven students achieved 10 A* and A grades or better. Amongst them were Artem Khovanov who obtained thirteen A* grades, Ben Clarke, Oliver Richardson and Ed Turner who obtained twelve and Joe Gray, Jack Hawkins, Jamie McGinn, Marc-Philip Schuler and Joshua Stone who obtained eleven.

A Progress 8 score of 0.68 in the DfE Performance Tables 2017 indicates that students made progress “Well Above Average” compared to children of similar ability nationally. These results once again place K.E.S. in the Top 10 of boys’ grammar schools nationally and come only a week after Warwickshire’s best A Level results were announced by the School.

Bennet Carr, Headmaster, said “The students and their teachers deserve great credit for maintaining such high levels of achievement in these, the most challenging examinations for a generation. I am particularly pleased for this group of Year 11 who have not just worked hard to achieve these results, but have also dedicated themselves to a vast array extra-curricular, enrichment and community activities. They can all be rightly proud of their achievements.”
