Bennet Carr, Headmaster, said “We are very proud of our students' achievements in their A Levels this year. These results are testament to their talent, hard work and the unwavering support from our dedicated staff and parent body. We wish our students every success as they embark on their next exciting chapters, whether that be at university or via an apprenticeship. I thank them all for their outstanding contribution to K.E.S. during their time with us and look forward to maintaining contact through the thriving Old Edwardians community.”
